DEDICATION

The Red Sox take pleasure in making a special dedication of this 1958 edition of the Press-TV-Radio Guide to the members of the Baseball Writers' Association of America, an organization this year celebrating the 50th anniversary of its foundation in 1908. Members of the Boston Chapter, BBWAA, and visitors from the allied chapters throughout the nation, together with representatives of the sports reporting fields of television, radio and the magazines, are ever welcome at Fenway Park and at spring training headquarters in Sarasota, Florida.

Our sincere Golden Jubilee congratulations and best wishes for continued success are extended to the Baseball Writers' of America.

WILLIAMS, Theodore Samuel

OUTFIELDER

Born: August 30, 1918, San Diego, Calif. Ht.: 6' 4"; Wt.: 198 lbs. Green-brown eyes; Brown hair. Bats: Left; Throws: Right. Home: Miami, Fla.

Perhaps outstanding among many amazing feats of the 1957 season was winning his fifth American League batting title, with his .388 average the highest in the majors since his own .406 in 1941 . . . His .731 slugging percentage was highest in the majors in the last 16 years . . . Played on his 13th American League All Star team . . . Named Red Sox MVP by Boston baseball writers . . . His feat of reaching base 16 successive times, and his season's 33 intentional walks are rated records . . . Also tied marks with four homers in consecutive official at bats, three homers in a game twice in one season, and two intentional walks in a game three times in a season . . . Finished third in fielding average among league outfielders, only .002 back of the leader . . . Led club in homers, total bases and walks . . . Hit .403 in 63 games at Fenway Park, .374 in 69 road games . . . Month-by-month batting figures were: .426 April; .402 May; .295 June; .435 July; .355 August; and .632 September (in his last 35 appearances at the plate, he reached base 25 times) . . . In five official pinch hit at bats, he made three hits, all homers . . . His grand slam home run on Sept. 21 at New York was the 15th of his major league career . . . Increased his lifetime batting average by .002; boasts highest among active major league players, while his 456 lifetime homers rate him fifth among all-time major league greats in that department . . . His amazing lifetime totals have been achieved despite two terms of service as a Marine Corps pilot during World War II and the Korean conflict.

HOMER BARRAGE

The Red Sox on two occasions last season tied an American League record by hitting four home runs in an inning. In the sixth inning vs. Cleveland, May 22, Gene Mauch, Ted Williams, Dick Gernert and Frank Malzone homered. (This was the first time the feat was accomplished in Fenway Park.) Again, on August 26, Norm Zauchin, Ted Lepcio, Jim Piersall and Malzone hit homers in the seventh inning of a game at Kansas City.

AT THE TOP

The 1957 Red Sox led the American League in runs batted in (695) and in doubles (231). They were second in the league in team batting (.262), runs scored (5267), number of hits (1380), total bases (2134), and home runs (153).

ANNIVERSARY YEAR

It was in February, 1933, that Thomas A. Yawkey bought the Boston Red Sox, just 25 years ago. (Actually, the 1958 season will be the 26th that the club has operated under his ownership and presidency.) It was at the start of the 1908 season that John I. Taylor, then owner of the Boston franchise, decreed that the team should be known as the Red Sox, just 50 years ago. Until then, the club had been known as the Boston Americans, Speed Boys, and Pilgrims.
